Stutzman

Dear Miss Stutzman:

It's been a wonderful two years working with you in the library. I just wish it could have been four years.
I will come back to visit as often as I can, and I'm sure it will be many times. We have had a wonderful friendship and I hope it continues indefinitely.

Your faithful library aide,
Mary Ann Zellers.

Dear Miss Stutzman,
I'll never forget the
fun and joy of working
in the library, with you.

I think of you as a teacher and friend, but I'll be very happy if you'll just remember me as one of your library aids.

Thank You

SHIELD

Dear Miss Stutzman,

Since I know the library so well and can say that it is my second home! I have become familiar with the things that are to be done that I find a real pleasure in doing them. I have enjoyed putting new covers on books, preparing magazines for the shelf, tying for you and all small things I have done. I have enjoyed being of service to you, because I knew and understood that you did not always have the time to accomplish all the things that are to be done.

I will always remember the library and you especially for being so wonderful to me.

as always,
Marilyn

Ivy, from the first moment of its life, stretches forth and climbs toward higher goals. Our school has grown in much the same way. Its first roots were firmly secure only five years ago. Since then, expansion has been rapid. The faculty and the student body have grown larger each year.

From the incompleting building where classes were first held, our modern facilities now stand as a symbol of how a progressive community rises to meet the needs of its people. And still we continue to grow.

Like the ivy, we send forth a part of ourself each spring. From the fundamentals learned here through the wise balance of academic study and sportsmanship, today's Seniors become tomorrow's adults. The step is important, perhaps the most important ever made. The advantages we have should be respected for what they are.

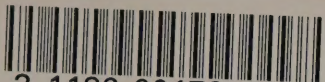

The leading citizens of future years come from schools such as ours, schools where opportunity is always available.

The four years spent here, the formative years, have benefitted each of us in different ways. Some will look back knowing the satisfaction of time well spent; others may not. But some things we all have shared; friends, classes, championships and near-championships. All of these things and many more can be included.

During the commencement exercises, this year's graduates will hear a song which is traditionally sung on that memorable occasion. It is, in a way, a testimonial to the effect of high school upon our lives:

OH WE LOVE THE HALLS OF IVY THAT SURROUND US HERE TODAY,
AND WE WILL NOT FORGET
THOUGH WE BE FAR, FAR AWAY.
TO THE SACRED HALLS OF IVY
EVERY VOICE WILL BID FAREWELL, AND SHIMMER OFF IN SILENCE
LIKE AN OLD VESPER BELL.

ONE DAY A HUSH WILL FALL
THE FOOTSTEPS OF US ALL
WILL ECHO DOWN THE HALL AND DISAPPEAR.
AND AS WE SADLY START
OUR JOURNEY FAR APART,
A PART OF EVERY HEART WILL LINGER HERE.
TO THE SACRED HALLS OF IVY
WHERE WE LIVED AND LEARNED TO KNOW,
THROUGH THE YEARS WE WILL SEE YOU
IN THE SOFT AFTERGLOW.

Dedication

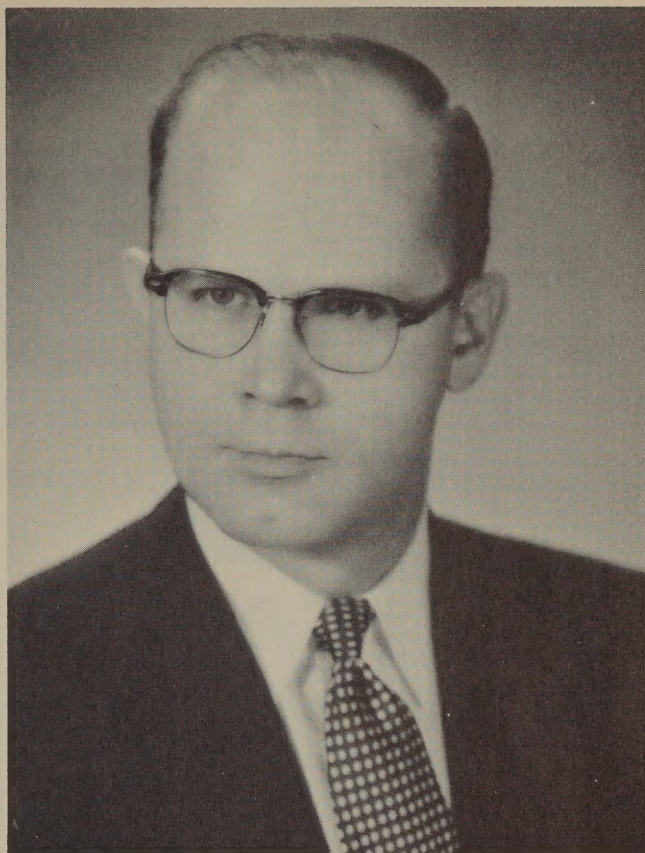

Mr. B. E. Wetzel's job is perhaps the most diversified of our school administrators. He donates his time to many projects.

These projects range from athletic events and substitute teaching in emergencies, to attendance at music contests.

His invaluable help is given to the year book staff, faculty members, and to students with a particular problem.

Many times he must run interference for Mr. Winters, deciding which problems are important enough to pass on to our superintendent, and those he must handle himself.

To a valuable member of the administration, our personal thanks and humble appreciation.

And we will not forget . . .

. . . the wise helpfulness of our superintendent, David F. Winters, to whom this book is humbly dedicated.

We will not forget the many times he was wisely lenient and the many times he was wisely strict.

We will not forget the true spirit of Oak Lawn, the spirit that Mr. Winters conceived and raised in the infant years of this school, and the many times it became necessary for him to remind us of that true spirit.

We will not forget his awareness and familiarity with people our age and the problems we must cope with. His role as a wise and just father has carried over into his job as a wise and just superintendent during his five years at Oak Lawn.

PAUL E. BURGESS, our Dean of Boys, has many duties, but his special talent lies in the handling of the problems of students under his supervision. Some discipline is necessary in any school, but discipline unwisely administered is ineffective. The door to his office is always open to any student and the cultivation of his friendship early in school life is often beneficial. His wise and thoughtful advice has the wisdom of many years experience in dealing with young people. A large measure of the credit for the high caliber of our student body must go to Mr. Burgess.

JENNIE ORR is the Dean of Girls here at Oak Lawn High. Her duties are as varied as those of Mr. Burgess and she is more than qualified for her job.

The task of guiding the character of hundreds of girls is not an easy one. It involves a coordination of effort by the parents, the teachers, and the students themselves. Through her fine example her diligent efforts on behalf of the girls, and her consistent understanding she has succeeded admirably in her goal. The high standard of our Oak Lawn girls are proof of this.

The work of our Guidance Director, SALLY EMMEL, is most appreciated by the students when they reach their Senior year. It is then, when problems of vocation arise, that she is best appreciated.

From the vast experience she has had in the field of education, she is able to offer sound advice on the future. Through her efforts our students have had the opportunities of participating in special scholarship program and aptitude tests. She has started and expanded a small library of college catalogues and other books of information for college bound students.

For all she has done for us in the past, a special thanks is humbly extended.

Dr. EARL R. ADAMS

WARREN O. KENEIPP, PRES.

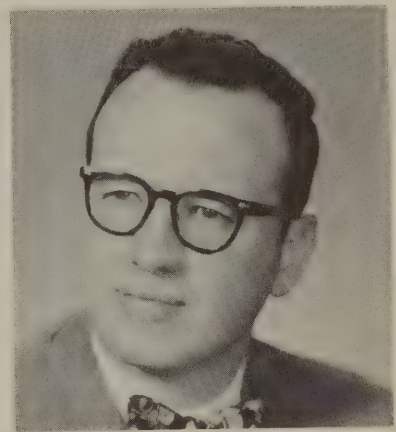

CHARLES W. LAWRENCE

ARTHUR S. MacDONALD

Our school board has the responsibility of providing the community with the finest educational opportunities available. The high character and the sense of obligation that these men have is visible in the decisions they have made. Mr. Robert Stitt, Sec. and Mr. James M. Duffey are not pictured.

DAVID REDMAN

Donna Woolridge, registrar, and Vinette Marjan, bookkeeper, are two of the many people who keep our school running smoothly.

Frances McGreevy, receptionist, is well known to all our student body. Her duties include switchboard, tardy slips, attendance reports, tardy slips, tardy slips. . . Helene Kopp, secretary, helps keep an accurate account of all school records.

We now dedicate this flagpole to the youth of today with the hope that it will point the way to better citizenship for all of us, and remembering that our flag is the symbol of our unity, our power, our thought and our purpose as a nation, and its character will only be as good as we make it as good citizens.

So with faith in our youth and in the future of our country, we pray that it will fly through many more years of peace for our great nation.

Mrs. R. Smart

SENIOR CLASS

The Senior year is the year when time is at a premium, and events are a ceaseless cascade.

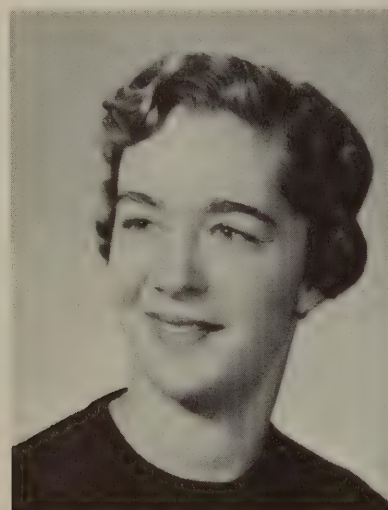

Representative of the young but proud tradition of Oak Lawn are our Senior class officers: Bruce Sayers, president; Mary Ann Duke, vice-president; June McVickers, secretary; and Marguerite Kolken, treasurer.

Wiser now and better prepared for the years ahead, these people and their classmates will give and leave behind their individual contributions to Oak Lawn Community High School, all of which have made and will continue to make our high school the source of our community's pride.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors, for the most part, are quite different from the carefree, care-less "Freshies" that started high school just three years ago.

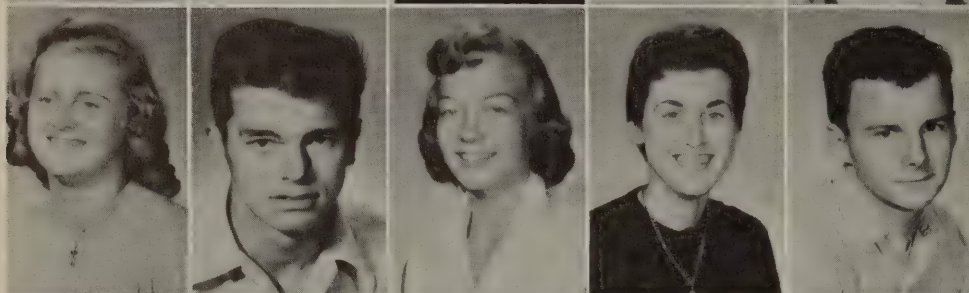

Their minds as well as their bodies have expanded. They look around and they see much more happening. They have a greater interest in school affairs and activities, and begin to feel the sense of pride that accompanies the name of Oak Lawn High.

Officers elected by the Junior Class this year were: William Stapleton vice-president; Karen Arness secretary; and Ray Cizowski treasurer.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Our Sophomores, a little more familiar with Oak Lawn Community High, have been enjoying the many opportunities and conveniences of our school.

They have chosen as their class officers: Forrest Dill, president; Charles Davis, vice-president; Doreen Davidson, secretary; and Connie Roman, treasurer.

To our Sophomore friends we say, "Good luck in your future years at Oak Lawn."

FRESHMAN CLASS

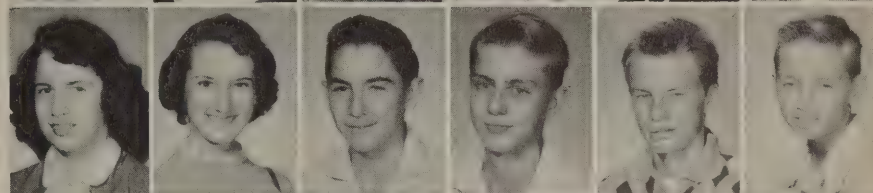

Every year the Freshmen seem a little different. Some years they seem a little louder than before. Perhaps it's the size, or lack of it, that is most striking. This year, however, the most outstanding Freshmen quality seems to be maturity. There is a more serious side to their nature. Life isn't all play and they seem to know it, at least for a while, anyway. Then suddenly, a breathless something asks you for directions, and you know that Freshmen never really change. This year their officers were: Charles Medows president; Tom Riley vice-president; James Bartuska secretary; and Paul McHenry treasurer.
